cratic headquarters. He found them all in the best of spirits. He says there is an independent republican club of 500 members in that city, made up of some of the best men of the grand old party. They are working independent of the democrats, but are heartily for Cleveland and Hendricks.

The Ohio republicans are becoming frightened and are making frantic appeals for money with which to stem her democratic current. Small contributions will no doubt be thankfully received. But why should a great moral party use money?

The republicans delight to describe Gov. Cleveland as "a third rate lawyer." He was president of the State Bar Association of New York, three or four years ago. The lawyers of the Empire State do not choose third rate fellows to preside over their deliberations.

REPORTS from the independent republican headquarters at New York are very encouraging for Gov. Cleveland. They are that hundreds of names are coming in by every mail, of republicans who declare for Cleveland and Hendricks, and that if the democratic ticket should be defeated, it can only be by democratic treachery.

“Our Carter” at Decatur.

The State Central Committee have fixed a date for Hon. Carter H. Harrison at Decatur,—September 9th. There is a great desire on the part of the friends and opponents of the honorable gentleman to see and hear him, and the Democracy naturally expect a grand demonstration.

Mr. John and Daniels have been formally notified of their nomination. St. John says his party works for the nation's welfare through the people's homes.

The partisan republican press are attempting to make light of Gov. Cleveland's letter of acceptance. In this they show their simplicity. The people read and are as capable of judging as many of the editors.

THE “IRISH WORLD” ON BLAINE.

The Connecticut Catholic of last week published a column of extracts from the Irish World, from September, 1881, to March 17, 1883, in which the Irish World denounced James G. Blaine as a flunkey and unworthy of support. Here is one of the extracts from the Irish World of December 10, 1881:

BOYNTON'S RELEASE.

The man who has been guilty of allowing this Union soldier to be imprisoned without trial in a foreign country on a vague suspicion, ought to be driven from public life. In his finikynism to the British government, James G. Blaine has refused to protect American citizens, whom he was bound by every principle of law to extend protection to. Such a man has no conception of what is due to the honor of the United States, and should never be placed in a position where he can disgrace our government.

Other extracts from the Irish World are quite as severe upon Blaine. One of them says: "We understand that the ex-secretary has still hopes of reaching the object of his life ambition, the presidency. We feel as certain as we can be of any event that James G. Blaine of Maine will never sit in the presidential chair." This was on the 22d of December, 1881. Now this Irish World is supporting Blaine for the presidency.

Officers and Members of Local Unions.

At the last regular meeting, held July 30th, 1884, of the Cigar Makers Union, No. 142, of Lockport, N. Y., comprising cigar makers of this city, Medina, N. Y., Albion, N. Y., and Akron, N. Y., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The Cigar Makers International Union of America has introduced a bill in the New York Legislature for the past five or six years for the prohibition of the manufacture of cigars in tenement houses in the city of New York and Brooklyn, which, with the assistance of other trade and labor organizations, was passed by the last legislature, and defeated, it can only be by democratic treachery.

REV. GOODWIN, who was for three years pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, is not for Oglesby.

He is now Presiding Elder in the Quincy District, and as usual pops out just what he thinks. He is a Hobbs man, of course. He is reported as saying that he believes he has a commission direct from heaven to assist in the defeat of Oglesby.

WHEREAS, Governor Grover Cleveland, the candidate of the Democratic party for the Presidency of the United States, has signed the tenement house cigar bill, it thereby becoming a law, and having signed all other labor bills which were passed by the legislature and are a benefit to the workingmen; and,

WHEREAS, The so called tenement house cigar manufacturers, our enemies, claim they are going to vote against Grover Cleveland, and "cook his goose," on account of his signing our bill, as published in the United States Tobacco Journal of the 19th of July, 1884; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we place Governor Cleveland's name on our roll of honor, and do all which lies within our power to aid in his election for the presidency of the United States, by giving him our votes on election day and urging other workingmen to do the same.

THE CAMP-MEETING.

Interest Excited.—The Services Yesterday.—Exercises To-day.

Yesterday was the fifth day of the great Methodist camp meeting at the fair grounds, and still a deep interest manifested in it by the religious people of this city and county. Crowds continue to flock there to attend divine service and much good seems to be accomplished by the ministers in charge. The attendance yesterday was not as large as on Monday, when Rev. Garrison greeted his old friends and conducted the meeting, but there were nevertheless a great many persons present in the afternoon and evening. Rev. Weber is an earnest worker and as a revivalist stands next in the favor of the people of Harrison. During the meeting he has made friends of friends and by his pleadings country sinners have been called to the altar.

The morning services yesterday were conducted by Rev. Dr. Lowry, who is an eloquent divine and preaches with great force. In the afternoon Rev. Weber conducted the service and also in the evening when he chose for his subject "Eternity, Where Shall We Spend it?" His congregation was quite large and he worked them up to a high pitch of excitement. The choir sang beautiful and impressive songs, in which the congregation joined. Many seekers came to the altar and professed faith while several expressed their feelings. Several expressive prayers were offered for them by different ministers. The success of the meeting was very gratifying.

TO-DAY'S SERVICES.

The following will be the services for to-day:

Early Prayer at 5:30.

Revival at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Weber.

Preaching at 10:30 by Rev. Lowry.

Preaching at 10:30 by Rev. H. O. Pratt.

Revival meeting at 7:30 conducted by Rev. Weber.

Yesterday a number of wampumers arrived and by evening were comfortably fixed in the tents that had been assigned them.

So far the weather has been all that could have been desired and has had a great deal to do with the success of the meetings. There has been enough rain to settle the unvariable dust and cool the heated atmosphere, making the evenings extremely pleasant for the services. The meetings will last over Sunday and every indication points to a continuance of the deep interest that has been manifested in them from the commencement. The coming Sunday will probably be one of the most successful days. It being the last, thousands of people will assemble to hear and participate in the farewell services.

OBITUARY.

Drop in this city, on Tuesday morning, August 21st, 1884, Edgar F. Ewing, in his 28th year of life.

Edgar Farris Ewing, the youngest son of the late Rev. Fielding N. Ewing and his widow Mrs. S. A. Ewing, of this city, was born in Bloomington, Illinois, May 29th, 1856. From the time he was eight years old his home was in Decatur. May will remember him as a school boy in the Second and Third ward and in the high school. Later he attended Phelps Academy at Andover, Mass., and Princeton College at Princeton, N. J. Some time after his return from college he engaged in the jewelry business, forming with Otto E. Curtis the firm of Curtis & Ewing. From that co-partnership he was obliged to retire in the fall of 1880 by reason of failing health. About five years ago he began to show the first symptoms of a serious bronchial affection; and in spite of a sturdy constitution it made steady headway. He went to Florida, Cuba and Nassau and twice to California, seeking health, but could not arrest the progress of the disease. It became more pulmonary in its character, and at last at six o'clock in the morning of August 26th, 1884, he fell a victim to it.

He had ripened from an ingenuous youth into a noble manhood. He was gentle, quiet, dignified and firm, always courteous without effort, elegant in his tastes, candid and strong. With a face of rare refinement and beauty, he had a compact frame of unusual strength. His mind was vigorous, practical and clear. And his best friends know that one of his choicest mental gifts was an unfailing humor that blended the most exact and discriminating wit with genuine pathos. While he was as gentle as a woman he was as fearless a man as ever lived. He feared neither the events of life nor its sad close. Edgar was tender, true, sincere and manly. His closing hours were peaceful. With soft, bright unrestrained eyes he looked in the faces of his loved ones, spoke in clear, steady tones and came to the verge of the grave with an unclouded mind and without a tremor. He lived and died a stainless private gentleman. God made him noble and God keeps him safe.

D. P. Keller of Macon, a republican candidate for the representative nomination, was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Baker, the candidate on the democratic ticket for representative in Moultrie county was in the city last evening.

Thomas Bivens, the Wabash excursion agent, went to Kansas City yesterday afternoon with a large party of excursionists.

J. D. Humphill, of Macon, came to his city yesterday afternoon to accompany the western excursion over the Wabash. He went to Florence, Kansas.

Mr. W. S. Cleveland, representing "Cal. Wagner's Minstrels," is in the city, arranging for the early appearance of that popular troupe in Decatur.

Thomas Lord and family of Wheatland township, were in the city yesterday. They took advantage of the half rate western excursion and went to Florence, Kansas.

Miss Adelia Cochran, of Lovington, and Miss Odie Foster of Sullivan, are in the city visiting the family of C. A. Carter. Miss Foster is daughter of the sheriff of Macon county.

Wood Peddecock, esq., of this city, a life long republican and nephew of Gen. Oglesby, has deserted the grand old party. He was present at the democratic primary last night and was elected a delegate.

The customers dealing in M. J. Hough's new harness shop, No. 106, corner Franklin and East Main, say that any person wanting harness should go out of his shop without buying or having an order for a set, his prices are so low. Fine track, or double track, or coach a specialty. Repairing neatly and cheaply done. He nows up with 8 orders for light harness, all hand made. Call and learn

THE FRENCH REPULSED.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A Times dispatch from Foo Chow, dated yesterday afternoon, says: "The French iron-clads entered the mouth of the river yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The white fort opened fire with Krupp cannon while the ships were three miles away. After an hour's engagement the French retired. The Chinese fire was good." The latest dispatches from English sources give full corroboration of the news of the French successes at Foo Chow reported Saturday and Sunday. According to the last reports, when Admiral Courbet ordered his iron-clads to open fire he was gallantly responded to by a squadron of ten Chinese gun-boats on the River Min. These were officered by Europeans, and the Chinese gunners served their pieces well, but the caliber of the guns was too small for the shot to inflict serious injury on the French. The latter fired with terrible effect, and the discipline of the gunners was perfect.

From the moment the French guns got the range on the Chinese boats a pitiless rain of fire was kept up. In vain the Chinese craft steamed hither and thither. One by one they went down, with great gaping holes in their sides, until seven of the well-tough gun-boats sank, with the dragon flag still flying. The remainder were captured for want of unwounded men to serve the guns. The French fleet now moved up the river and took a position opposite the great arsenal of Foo Chow. Its flanking forts and batteries replied at first with lime spirit, but the French shells were dropping beyond them, in the arsenal itself. A tremendous explosion that shook the earth showed that a French shell had fallen into the arsenal magazine. From three hours the French fire ceased. For three hours the French gunners poured a storm of shell upon the arsenal, which was on fire in several places.

The signal to cease firing was at length given, and it was seen that the place was utterly destroyed. Toward nightfall several detachments of sailors and marines landed without opposition. The Chinese batteries were deserted and the place was in the hands of the French. No advance was attempted on the city of Foo Chow itself. The French fleet can not ascend the river further. In the English accounts there is no mention of the loss of the two French iron-clads reported Sunday.

No complications arising from interference with the commercial interests of Germany, England, or any other power are anticipated by the French foreign office, and the privileges of neutral nations will be respected as far as is consistent with the interests of France. There is no likelihood of being compelled to refer the matter to arbitration or to permit any diplomatic intervention. It is thought she will now push the matter to the end and dictate her own terms to China.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Tein Tien of Sunday says the Charge d'Affaires has left there, but the acting Consul remains. The Republique Francaise says: "France will soon seize and retain such territory in China as will be useful to her." Chang Pi Lung will lead the Chinese troops against the French. A dispatch from Hanoi of yesterday says that General Milot has taken the necessary measures for repelling the expected Chinese invasion. It is rumored in Paris that China has made a formal declaration of war, and notified the powers to that effect. French papers are inclined to accept the statement made by the London Times respecting the bombardment of Foo Chow.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—There is another chance for a misunderstanding between England and Germany in regard to West African territory. On July 12 the German's took formal possession of Cameroons River, in Upper Guinea, and the adjoining country.

This roused great dissatisfaction among the English traders, who think England should have taken the river years ago. On July 23 Mr. Hewitt, the British Consul, held a meeting of the merchants and local kings and chieftains at Old Calabar. As the result of this the Kings and Chiefs signed a treaty placing themselves and their dominions under British protection.

MADAGASCAR, Aug. 26.—Rumors are growing currency here that Senor Zorilla, the radical agitator, is preparing to raise a rebellion. The Government is taking precautions.

CARIO, Aug. 26.—Soldiers from Berber report 630 Egyptian officers and soldiers in the hands of the rebels, who treat them as slaves. The rebels pray for the Mahdi instead of the Sultan, and declare that the Turks are heathen, who are to be killed or exterminated.
